

Recognizing Sue “Robertson” Zeller 25 Years as President of the WedgWood Women’s Club, Inc

WHEREAS There are moments we must pause and reflect on the contributions of Washington Township residents and recognize the people who have contributed so much to the fabric of the community; and

WHEREAS Sue “Robertson” Zeller has been a community activist and resident of Washington Township for more than 35 years; and

WHEREAS Sue “Robertson” Zeller’s vast experience in business and her compassion for people, served as President of Literacy Volunteers of America for 8 years. Sue presently sits on the Foundation Board of Rowan College of Gloucester County; and

WHEREAS Sue “Robertson” Zeller became President of the WedgWood Women’s Club, Inc. when there were only 17 active members. With all of Sue’s experience, commitment and passion, she has served as President of the WedgWood Women’s Club, Inc. for 25 years, increasing active membership to more than 100 members; and

WHEREAS Sue “Robertson” Zeller’s contribution to the WedgWood Women’s Club is highlighted by the Annual Christmas House Tour, which is celebrating a 25 year anniversary and raising more than $200,000 in scholarships since its inception.

NOW, THEREFORE, on this 15th day of September, 2015, it is proclaimed that I, Barbara A. Wallace, Mayor of Washington Township, and representing all of its people, congratulate Sue “Robertson” Zeller on 25 years as President of the WedgWood Women’s Club, Inc. I extend best wishes for continued success for years to come.
