Incident Narrative

On November 19, 2017, at 0100 hours, officers responded to the Primrose Motel for the report of gunshots fired. Accusers fled prior to police arrival. The victim involved was not injured and refused medical attention on scene. The motel was cleared by officers. A 9mm shell casing was located resting on the ground of the property. There were no bullet entry marks located.

The victim was confronted by three (3) black males as he stood outside his room. One male brandished a black semi-automatic handgun and fired two (s) shots at the target, both missed. The victim retreated back into his room. As he was attempting to shut the door, the accused stuck his hand inside the door and fired two (2) more shots, again missing.

The accused shooter was described by the victim as a black male, dark complexion, short dread locks with a goatee. No other description was obtained on the other two involved.

The case remains under investigation by Detective Tom Myers. Anyone with information about the case is asked to contact Det. Myers at (856) 589-0330 or via email at tmmyers@pd.twp.washington.nj.us. Requests for additional information should be directed to Lieutenant Kenneth Kennedy at kjkennedy@pd.twp.washington.nj.us.
