Incident Narrative

On Tuesday November 7, 2017, at approximately 2055 Hrs., two black males entered the Game Stop at 3501 Black Horse Pike (Crosskeys Commons) and demanded money from the register. Both male subjects wore black hooded sweat shirts, blue bandanas concealing their faces, and jeans. One black male was approximately six foot tall, the other was approximately five foot ten inches tall. One subject produced a large revolver style firearm.

An unknown amount of money was taken as well as multiple Play Station IV gaming systems and other gaming equipment. The males then fled the area in an unknown vehicle and an unknown direction of flight.

The case remains under investigation by Detective Matthew Franchi. Anyone with information about this case is asked to contact him at (856) 589-0330 or via email at mjfranchi@pd.twp.washington.nj.us.
