Incident Narrative

On 09-21-18 the Washington Township Police Department responded to 6 Magnolia Ln. to investigate an aggravated assault. It was reported that a female victim was lying in the driveway suffering from multiple stab wounds. We also learned that the accused female was still in the residence and refusing to surrender. After several unsuccessful attempts to have her exit the residence, the Gloucester County Swat Team was activated and responded to the scene.

The Swat team, also unable to persuade her to surrender, made entry into the residence. Once inside they were able to take her into custody without incident.

The victim was transported to Cooper Hospital for treatment. The suspect was transported to Jefferson Hospital (Washington Township) to be treated for several self-inflicted stab wounds.

Charges: Attempted Murder, Aggravated Assault and Possession of a Weapon for an Unlawful Purpose.
