Incident Narrative

On September 19, 2018 at 1630 hours, officers were notified of a walk-in complaint at our Police Administration Building. A female employee of a local dentist office reported that she discovered a camera hidden in an employee bathroom.

The victim, who was accompanied by numerous other female employees, stated while inside the restroom she observed the camera.

As a result of the information obtained from the victim, as well as other evidence collected, the accused was arrested and charged with Invasion of Privacy. The defendant was processed and released pending a future court appearance.

Requests for additional information should be directed to Captain Kenneth J. Kennedy at kjkennedy@pd.twp.washington.nj.us.
