Incident Narrative

On May 1, 2018 a female resident of Washington Township reported that she was traveling on Hurffville-Crosskeys Road with her 14 year old daughter. She advised police that she was being followed by a green pickup truck which was being operated by a possible white or Hispanic male, approximately 50 years old with scruffy facial hair and dark short hair. This subject followed the female a significant distance despite the female's attempt to evade him. This subject followed the female until she arrived at her daughter's bus stop. At this point it was believed the subject left the area. Approximately one half hour later this same subject showed up in the area of the daughter's bus stop and appeared to be watching the female. Subsequent to an investigation by the Washington Township Police Investigative Bureau, Gary D. Galinkin of Jerrys Ave. in Clayton, was arrested and charged with the following:

CHARGES:

Endangering another person            2C:24-7.1A(2)
 Assault by physical menace            2C:12-1A(3)
