Incident Narrative

On April 4, 2019 the Washington Township Police Department responded to a report of a dwelling fire on Johnson Rd. in the Turnersville section of town. Upon arrival, officers observed thick black smoke, as well as flames, coming from the attached garage section of the residence. Officers were quickly able to determine that the home was unoccupied.

The fire was quickly able to be brought under control. An investigation into the cause is ongoing.

Requests for additional information should be directed to Captain Kenneth Kennedy at kjkennedy@pd.twp.washington.nj.us.
